

Jakub Chojna

As a Frontend Developer with 4 years of commercial experience, I merge my past as an Architect and 3D Graphic Artist with my present, creating visually compelling, immersive and interactive digital experiences. I am looking for a new opportunity in software development where I can leverage my expertise in JavaScript/Typescript and React to contribute to innovative projects and expand my skills to become a full-stack developer. My interest in creative coding using Three.js and CSS further fuels my passion for creating unique, interactive web experiences
